RESOURCE CENTER VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

What does GOD require of us?

God requires that we should "do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.

Micah 6:8

We at the Basilica are continuing to expand the resources we provide in our community, beyond what we do today in the food pantry, soup kitchen and with financial resource support. We are now providing financial and employment workshops, which will provide the community we serve with the tools to build their future. We soon will offer GED classes. As you can see, we have become a Resource Center. Our goal is to continue to show mercy, to empower, therefore promoting dignity and self-sufficiency.

Volunteers are needed for our Resource Center

Be part of an effort to empower others. Contact:

Angela Harris, Resource Minister

SEEKING LOVING FAMILIES

Catholic Charities is seeking loving families to provide temporary foster care for infants awaiting placement with their "forever family." Families must have one adult who does not work outside of the home and must undergo a home study (at Catholic Charities' expense) prior to any foster placements.

If you are interested in providing love and support to infants in our adoption program, please contact Nancy Laffey at 757-484-0703 or nlaffey@cceva.org.
