Evangelization...
Cycle C: The Gospel of Luke
July 8 and July 13

The readings from the next liturgical year will come from the Gospel of Luke. Fr. Jim will give an overview of the Gospel of Luke between the Sunday masses. In preparation, you might wish to read or review the Gospel beforehand. The presentation and your review will provide a greater understanding of the gospel's purpose, goal and intended audience.

LET US PRAY...

For all our fathers,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who had no
opportunity to know
their own dad,
let us pray to the Lord...

For our fathers who
have died,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers whose sacrifices
are unknown to their families,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers unable to provide what they want their children to have,
let us pray to the Lord...

For every father mourning the loss of a child he loved,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who are single parents,
let us pray to the Lord...

For divorced and separated fathers
who miss their children,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers estranged from or barred from seeing their children,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers away in the military and for all those who serve in harm's way,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers of sons and daughters
lost in war,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who are in prison,
let us pray to the Lord...

For grand- and great-grandfathers
who care for their children's children,
let us pray to the Lord...

For teachers and coaches and mentors who've been "father" to many young people,
let us pray to the Lord...

For priests, men we call "Father"
who have no children of their own,
let us pray to the Lord...

For all fathers in need of our prayers,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who are chronically
or terminally ill,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers expecting
the birth of a child,
let us pray to the Lord...

For men who desire to be fathers,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who see the sun rise and set in the eyes and smiles of their children,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers in good relationships with their children and for those who aren't,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who grew up without a dad,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who have failed their children
and who are trying again,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who will be forgotten
or ignored on this Fathers Day,
let us pray to the Lord...

For fathers who work multiple jobs
to provide for their families,
let us pray to the Lord...

For unemployed fathers,
desperately looking for work,
let us pray to the Lord...

God our Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things.

Bless our fathers, living and deceased. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their families, may love and honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
